Times: 9.00 a.m. – 4.00 p.m.
Venue: Ecotech Centre, Swaffham

Aims

To enable staff involved in providing careers education and information, advice and guidance (CEIAG) in schools and colleges to develop their understanding of the work, their roles, and the materials and support available to help students and staff.

Objectives

By the end of the course participants will:

1. Understand the agenda for careers education and IAG within the 11-19 curriculum including statutory requirements
2. Understand how impartial Careers Education can be delivered through the curriculum
3. Develop their understanding of the roles and responsibilities of staff involved in careers work with young people
4. Be aware of 14-19 learning options, qualifications and pathways available to young people
5. Review a range of careers and PSHEE information and teaching/learning resources including software, websites and publications
6. Identify how they can work in partnership with Connexions PAs and staff from other agencies to deliver high quality information, advice and guidance to young people.

Target Group

Careers and IAG Co-ordinators and Assistant Co-ordinators in schools and colleges (particularly those who are new or recently appointed); Personal Tutors; Connexions Personal Advisers; other staff involved in organising or supporting Careers Education and IAG in schools and colleges.

Costs
