

Developing IAG with parents, carers and families

Date: 20th January 2011
Times: 9.00 a.m. – 4.00 p.m.
Venue: Ecotech Centre, Swaffham

Background Information

Parents and carers play a vital role in helping their child with making choices about their future. It is usually parents that children turn to for information, advice and guidance (IAG). How do we, therefore, engage with parents, carers and families to help them help their child? What resources and support are available?

Aims

To enable participants to share ideas and develop good practice that supports, contributes and involves parents and carers in careers, PSHEE and IAG provision within schools, colleges and the community.

Objectives

To enable participants to:

- Review existing activities that engage parents, carers and families in IAG
- Share examples of good practice and innovative ways of working with parents and carers to better inform and involve them in supporting young people's career choices.

Target Group

School and College Careers / IAG / PSHEE / Extended Schools Co-ordinators, Learning Mentors, Parent Support Advisers and any other staff working closely with parents, carers and families.
Connexions Personal Advisers.

Costs

This opportunity, including lunch and refreshments, is provided free of charge.
